1. Requesting ACT-Approved Accommodations in TAA: CCRIS Log In Screen

Caution! When to Set up a CCRIS Account

If you have a CCRIS account for ordering test materials, or for SRPS, do not create a new ACT account for TAA. Use your established CCRIS username and password to access TAA and associate with your school.

The screenshot shows the ACT College and Career Readiness Information System (CCRIS) login interface. At the top, the ACT logo is followed by the text "College and Career Readiness Information System" and a "Sign In" link. The main heading reads "Sign in to Order Materials and Request ACT-Approved test accommodations through the Test Accessibility and Accommodations System". Below this, there are input fields for "Username" and "Password", followed by a green "Sign In" button. To the right of the login fields, there are links for "Don't have an account?" (with a sub-link "Sign up for an ACT account") and "Need a reminder?" (with a sub-link "I forgot my password"). At the bottom right, an "IMPORTANT NOTE" states that users registered in ACT's SRPS (Supplier Registration and Payment System) as test center or facility staff, or those with a CCRIS account for ordering testing materials, should use their existing credentials to request accommodations and log into the Test Accessibility and Accommodations System. It warns against creating a new account, as a duplicate account with a different email address could lead to error messages.

The items you order are free. These alternate formats may be checked out by students or used to simulate a practice session in school. Keep them at your school until they are no longer in usable condition.

With each format ordered, you will receive a copy of Preparing for the ACT Special Testing. This booklet includes the scoring keys and a large type (18-pt.) Writing Test, which you may read verbatim to students. Students who will test with a regular type test booklet should download Preparing for the ACT, which also includes a Writing Test, from www.actstudent.org.

Please complete the form accurately and legibly to avoid delays in receiving your materials.
Please indicate which item you are ordering by marking the item box.
If you select an item without specifying the quantity, you will receive only one copy of that format.
