of recs	Performer name	Type	Comments	Virtual program options	Contact info
3	Meghan Casey, Rocky Mountain Puppets,	Puppets, ventriloquism	A great ventriloquist who uses the theme each year to present to libraries. She is very good at what she does and always involves audience participation. Great entertainment for kids of all ages. Toddlers to junior high age enjoyed the show. By far the most professional performance we have ever had. Very worth the fee.	Live and recorded	(303) 469-4155 rockymountainpuppets.com/ rockymountainpuppets@gmail.com
3	LMNO Puppets	Puppetry	Matt and Sarah were great! Kids and adults all loved their puppet show. The Readles-Live at the Library is a musical puppet show featuring literacy-themed parodies of familiar Beatles hits. Fun for young and old. Matt is great to work with. He writes his own puppets shows and makes all of his own puppets. He's really energetic and engaging with the kids. He includes some education and ties the show into the summer reading theme. 1	Alex Thomas & Friends	Puppets, caricature drawing, & animation	Based in Michigan; provides virtual workshops & performances nationwide.	Live	(313) 729-3328 https://www.alexthomasandfriends.com/
2	LocoMotion - The Science & Circus Arts Show	Juggling, theatre, movement, acrobatics, science	Peter Davison leads an amazing acrobatic show with a lot of science info woven into it. This show is packed with audience participation, education, and entertainment!	?	locomotionshow.com peter@locomotionshow.com 303-748-9244
3	Ann Lincoln	Juggling and magic	Her mix of comedy and juggling always delights the kids. She is so engaging and teaches the kids how to behave for a	Live and recorded	www.annlincoln.com annlincoln@annlincoln.com 303-388-2820 performance. Unfailingly professional. NOBODY gets the kids laughing like she does. She has amazing juggling skills & a great magic show as well. It's always presented with a good message about literacy and the library. She incorporates storybook characters and the SRP theme and makes it interactive. She did a great job of making a variety of virtual videos on YouTube that were easy for parents and teachers to watch. Covid-19 hit and Ann adapted to the situation by producing her show on line. Ann is well worth the time taken to watch with a child. The wonder in a child's eyes is amazing while watching Ann

2	Sam Malcolm	Juggling, comedy, education	Based in Denver. He was a brand new performer for our library. The kids thought he was funny and he kept us on the edge of our seats!	No	(720) 608-0657 http://sammalcolm.com/
1	Petso the Clown	Clowning, poetry	Petso isn't what we normally think of when we hear the word "clown." No floppy shoes, heavy face paint, or squirting flowers here! Thoughtful and engaging, Petso performs for children by responding to their interests and whims. We saw almost 40 attendees at his last performance and we can't wait to see his work!	?	http://www.petsodreamingshow.com/petso
1	Salida Circus	Circus events	With acrobats, jugglers, trapeze artists, unicyclists, stiltwalkers and more, Salida Circus provides tons of fun with their interactive performances.	?	jennsalidacircus@gmail.com https://thesalidacircus.com/
2	Denver Zoo	Animals	The Zoo provided an exciting opportunity for communities outside of the Denver Metro area to enjoy a large-scale, interactive, exotic learning experience made available at no cost to the library through a grant the Zoo received. – They offer scholarships; I've paid $30 before for a program and it was wonderful!	Free videos; live sessions for a fee	outreach@denverzoo.org https://denverzoo.org/virtual-classroom/
1	Cheyenne Mountain Zoo	Animals	They did several interactive programs including Animal Jobs, Animal Mythbusters and Habitat Hike where they exhibited lots of animals and allowed kids to ask questions.	Live	Courtney Phone: 719-424-7827 Edprograms@cmzoo.org https://www.cmzoo.org/events-programs/virtual-experiences/

2	Nature's Educators - Devin Paszek	Animals	This year they did one raptor program and one snake program. The presenters are great with the kids and we always learn so much. They are reasonably priced and the presenters are good with working with the kids (and the animals). We used them twice this summer and they brought 2 different sets of animals (raptors and then reptiles) and each program was just a little bit different so it didn't feel redundant for our regular attenders.	Live virtual 30 minute classes	devin.p@natureseducators.org info@natureseducators.org 720-495-9316 www.natureseducators.org/
1	Rocky Mountain Arsenal Wildlife Refuge	Animals	They offered a FREE Monarch Butterfly Program for the younger children (under six) that was hugely popular. The presenter Susan Drobniak was wonderful with the children. She explained the butterfly life cycle, let the children dress up with butterfly wings and goggles that allowed them to "see like a butterfly."	?	www.fws.gov/refuge/rocky_mountain_arsenal/susan_drobniak@fws.gov
1	Wolfwood Refuge	Animals	Amazing! They rescue wolves and bring them along on their presentation. It's great to let the kids (and teens, adults) see the wolves in person.	?	www.wolfwoodrefuge.org/
2	Rocky Mountain Raptor Program of Fort Collins	Animals	Highly knowledgeable staff, an entertaining and informative presentation, and of course real hawks, owls and falcons. They were totally undaunted upon hearing that there would be a wide age range at the program. They did a wonderful job in not only bringing birds to enjoy but working with the kids and answering their questions. - Very popular, highest attended program and great virtual setup	Live	www.rmrp.org 970-484-7756
1	Butterfly Pavilion	Animals	They're providing live virtual classes and field trips featuring butterflies, bees, arachnids, and more.	Live and recorded	https://butterflies.org/virtualearning/
1	Story Creations/ Denise Gard and her Border Collies	Storytelling with dogs, acting for teens and tweens	Denise incorporates her dogs into her stories which was really fun for the kids. High energy fun programs for kids of all ages. She offers a variety of programs. Our Kids loved the dog and Denise did a good job incorporating our SRP theme in to her performance.	Recorded	719-229-5061 www.storycreations.org storycreations@yahoo.com
1	Indiana Bones	Storytelling	Thoroughly entertaining and keep the kids' attention the whole time! Based in Santa Fe but travels to CO.	?	http://storyteller.net/indiana-bones/ 702-234-5428

1	Beth Epley	Storytelling and music	She is an awesome storyteller. She gets the crowd involved in her stories. She is also affordable and was our second highest attended program. Love how she interacts with the audience	?	(303) 880-7755 SaucyDoodle@msn.com http://www.bethepley.com/
2	Arvada Center	Drama, creative movement, music	We did 2 programs with them (creative dramatics and creative movement). Both programs were run by a skilled instructor who had great control of the kids. These were VERY interactive. -- We partnered w/ The Arvada Center to offer a drum circle program that was wonderful for all ages and abilities. We highly recommend this partner!	Live	https://arvadacenter.org/education/for-educators
1	Play-Ground Theater Company	Theater, acting	They provide fun youth outreach classes. Currently providing pre-recorded and live virtual classes.	Live and recorded	http://www.playgroundtheatre.com/ Contact Keith Horvath, Director of Youth and Outreach
5	Drum Safari- Brandon Draper, Looking Up Productions	Drumming, puppets, and storytelling	We really have enjoyed Drum Safari the past two years. They called themselves "edu-tainment" -- so they are very interactive and bring instruments for EVERYONE, but there is also a learning component that they tie into the Summer Reading theme. I would recommend this group, because they are very entertaining and the audience participation really adds to the performance. They're currently offering virtual classes.	Live	drumsafari.org drumsafari@gmail.com or draperama@gmail.com 505-239-9625
1	Charlie Williams, The Noise Guy	Sound effects, storytelling	Some educational value and very funny. He's currently offering live virtual shows.	Live and recorded	noiseguycw@gmail.com soundsafari.wordpress.com/ 425-606-7589
1	Salida Circus	Circus events	With acrobats, jugglers, trapeze artists, unicyclists, stiltwalkers and more, Salida Circus provides tons of fun with their interactive performances.	?	jennsalidacircus@gmail.com https://thesalidacircus.com/
1	Wick School of Irish Dancers	Dancing, music	The dancers were kids and teens, many of them competition level dancers. Based in the Denver metro area.	?	http://wickschool.com/ Contact Linnane Joseph at wickschool@msn.com
1	Neil McIntyre,	Music (hip hop)	Always has the crowd on their feet. Our kids loved Mr. Kneel's performance. He combined music and beat boxing in a creative way to promote reading and learning at his	Live	Boulder suzy@mrkneel.com mrkneel.com

	aka Mr. Kneel		performance. He was excellent, talked to the kids about finding music they like that has a positive message and spoke about self-esteem in a great, non-direct way. Fun program that was really different than other library programs we've had.		(303)320-3505
1	Deepali Lindblom	Dance, music	Deepali did a Bollywood dance presentation then provided step-by-step dance instructions for the audience. Great for ages 5-adults. Based in Denver.	?	deepali.ca/eng/home.html
1	Hunkta-bunkta - Katherine Dines	Music	Her music was wonderful and her whole program was so interactive. It kept the kids engaged and focused.	?	kdines@hunktabunkta.com hunktabunkta.com/wp/
1	Kaleidoscope Music Studio/ House of Joy - Beth Wilberger	Music	We really enjoyed House of Joy (new to us). It is a family Mom, Grandma and two boys who play many instruments. Their show was very interactive and inspiring. Loved the energy and having the kids in the show really invited participation.	?	https://kaleidoscopemusicstudio.com/house-of-joy 720-234-7900
1	Didgeridoo Down Under	Music	Very professional and educational. I did not know didgeridoo music could be so enjoyable.	Live and recorded	darren@didgrevolution.com https://www.dideddownunder.com/
1	Randy Sauer	Music	Singer-songwriter provides very engaging children's music performances that involve the whole crowd.	?	randy@jamminrandy.com 785-623-9378 www.jamminrandy.com/
3	Steve Weeks	Music	Steve Weeks did an amazing job. He was personable and very easy to work with. I would highly recommend him. The kids were talking about him all summer. He is very responsive through his website. His presentation is interactive. He's an award-winning family musician who plays interactive music geared towards young children, but every adult in the crowd (including me!) had just as much fun as the kids did. Each song is a story or a game, with some way for the audience to participate built in, so it's fun--and the music itself is clever and enjoyable.	Live	www.steveweeksmusic.com/contact@steveweeksmusic.com

2	Swallow Hill Music	Music	1. Instrument petting zoo: kids got to see, touch and test different musical instruments. 2. Swallow Hill hosted four ukulele classes for the Broomfield Library, ranging from age 5 to adult. The classes filled quickly, and were a huge success.	Live and recorded	swallowhillmusic.org/ michael@swallowhillmusic.org

1	Jeff & Paige Kagan, Boulder	Music and environmental science	Educational and fun, original music. They are lively, hilarious (even the kids think so), do current topics about ecology and use music all around the year's theme. Very professional and energetic.	Live and recorded	jeff@jeffandpaige.org
1	Elizabeth Fink-Henrikson	STEM	Her NASA presentation of the Mars Map was amazing. It was very engaging, it made the kids and adults think about what our future holds.	?	sillieteacher@yahoo.com
2	Science Matters	STEM	A really big hit at our library and we would highly recommend them. This program never disappoints and the kids love them. One presenter did a program called "Polymer-a-Palooza", she did many demonstrations on polymers, had audience participation, was funny and fun, let the kids do their own experiments and take them home. I liked that she stayed at the level that the young kids could understand. We thoroughly enjoyed her program and would recommend them!!!	Live	(303) 805-9287 www.sciencematters.tv/ Littleton
1	Gray Matters Science - Stephanie Urban	STEM	Our program was learning about fossils. The instructor was great with the kids and she had a great hands-on activity where the kids were able to dig for chocolate chip fossils	?	sburban@hotmail.com https://www.facebook.com/graymattersscience/
1	Talewise	STEM and storytelling	Rene Otto from Talewise (formerly Science Tellers) was amazing!
