

2021 Fall Youth Services Workshops

Adult Services and Programming: Oceans of Possibilities

Why provide summer programs
for adults?

Inspire

Inspire the love of reading at all ages

Stretch

Stretch reading habits for adults

Model

Model reading for kids and teens

Provide

Provide connection and a third place

Reach

Reach underserved audiences

Market

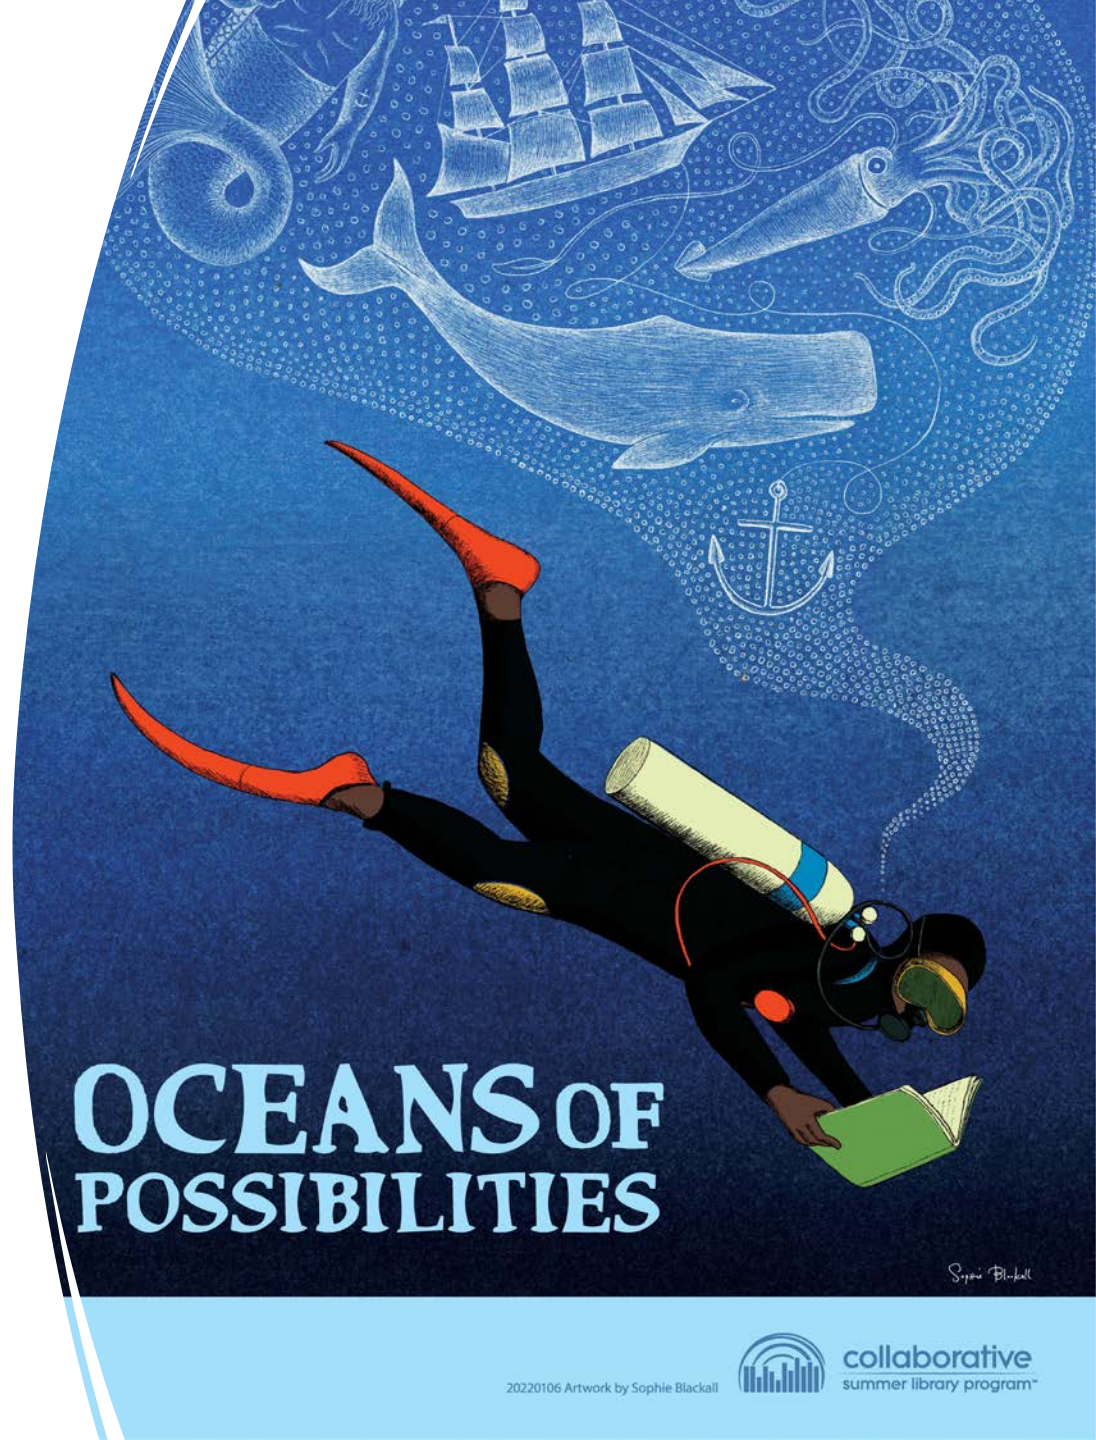

Market all library services

Encourage

Encourage family members to read with kids

2022 CSLP Program

Artist: Sophie Blackall
Adult ideas in the manual
The CSLP store is open!

What can this look like?

- Ask your community!!
- Keep it simple
- Tie to family literacy
- Take it into the community
- Focus on an underserved audience
- Try out new programs
- Tie to the ocean theme, or not
- Consider a different season
- Partnerships are important!
- Reduce barriers to participate

Track your progress! Using the boxes below, mark off each day an activity or 30 minutes of reading has been completed to earn the prizes listed on the back of this program. Log an additional 15 activities or days of reading, for a total of 30 activities, to earn the annual reading program mug!

|    |    |    |    |               |
|----|----|----|----|---------------|
| 1  | 2  | 3  | 4  | 5             |
| 6  | 7  | 8  | 9  | 10            |
| 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | EARN A PRIZE! |

|    |    |    |    |                           |
|----|----|----|----|---------------------------|
| 1  | 2  | 3  | 4  | 5                         |
| 6  | 7  | 8  | 9  | 10                        |
| 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | EARN AN ADDITIONAL PRIZE! |

Adult Summer Bingo Example

|  |  |   |   |   |
|--|--|---|---|---|
| Check out a cookbook and make a new recipe                           | Contribute a book recommendation to the library                          | Like the Library's Facebook page ( www.facebook.com/coloradostatelibrary ) | Read with a child—your own, a friend's, or at a local preschool or kindergarten (milk and cookies optional) | Tweet or blog about the library   |
| Ask a librarian for a reading suggestion                             | Download or check out an audiobook from the library                      | Find a nonfiction book that you can't put down (see 2 squares to the left)  | Use a library database for work or school, or to learn more about a personal interest                       | Attend a library program, virtual or in person; see what we're offering at www.librarycalendar.org |
| Read in a genre or format you've never tried before                  | Volunteer at the library   | FREE SPACE—Reader's Choice!   | Reread an old favorite  | Check out a good mystery—and try to solve it before the end of the book   |
| Check out something unusual at the library (like a state park pass!) | Read outside on a beautiful day  | Place a hold on a book, CD, or DVD  | Meet someone new at the library or a library outreach event   | Pick up and complete a library take and make kit  |
| Read the book a movie was based on, and check out the DVD            | Bring a friend or family member to the library who has never been before | Check out a magazine—or read one online through the library's databases   | Read a young adult novel or graphic novel (you may be surprised)  | Give someone the gift of a book   |

Sample Adult Program: Oceans of Possibilities

---

- Program 1: Celebrate World Ocean Day, June 8
- Program 2: Nautical Movie Nights
- Program 3: Shark Week!
- Program 4: How to be an Ocean Hero (even in a land-locked state)

SAVE THE DATE

DECEMBER 2, 2021

first annual

CSLP SUMMER SYMPOSIUM

9:30-2:30 MT

FREE!!

Featuring keynote speaker Liz McChesney

Registration now open!!