

COMPREHENSIVE LITERACY FOR ALL

Students Who are Working on the Extended Evidence Outcomes (EEO)

The Colorado Department of Education SSN Network announces this exciting opportunity. We will be holding a weekly Virtual Book Study on the book, Comprehensive Literacy for ALL: Teaching Students with Significant Disabilities to Read and Write by Karen Erickson and David Koppenhaver, 2020. This is an amazing opportunity to learn and network with your colleagues across the state.

WHO?

For school personnel who provide literacy instruction (planning, preparation, delivery) for students who are working towards the alternate achievement standards or Extended Evidence Outcomes (EEO).

WHAT?

The virtual book study will begin the week of September 9th and end the week of December 16th. We are offering 3 different sessions and you can choose the day and time based on your schedule.

REGISTER NOW

- To participate you must agree to a few assurances/requirements listed on the application.
- You are invited to apply for a spot in one of these sessions and commit to attending each session. Space is limited.
- This application does not guarantee acceptance. You will be notified if you are accepted to participate and the time of your session the week of September 3rd. CDE will ship the book to you on that date so that you are ready for the first session.

SCHEDULE AT A GLANCE

TUESDAY

- 4:30 to 5:30 PM (secondary focus)

WEDNESDAY

- 6:30 to 7:30 PM

THURSDAY

- 4:00 to 5:00 PM

"Therein was the challenge that was put before some of us who believed that no one is too anything to learn to read and write...." (Yoder, 2001)

QUESTIONS?

CONTACT GINA HERRERA

herrera_g@cde.state.co.us

Applications for the book study close on September 3, 2024.