June 4-6, 2019 in Fort Collins, Colorado

Distinguished Speakers Announced

Bryn Harris, Wednesday, June 5th, 2019

Culturally & Linguistically Responsive ASD Evaluation

Dr. Harris is an Associate Professor in the School Psychology doctoral program in the School of Education and Human Development at the University of Colorado Denver. Her primary research interests include the psychological assessment of bilingual learners, culturally and linguistically responsive assessment of autism spectrum disorder (ASD), health disparities among children with ASD, and improving mental health access and opportunity within traditionally underserved populations.

Looking at the Impact of the Endrew F. Decision

Mr. Robinson was the attorney for the parents in Endrew F. v. Douglas County Sch. Dist., a landmark case decided by the United States Supreme Court in 2017 that established a “markedly more demanding” standard for determining the educational rights of children with disabilities. He has represented clients in the U.S. District Court, and appeals in the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States Supreme Court. Mr. Robinson is a member and founder of the Colorado Council of Special Education Lawyers and is a member of the Council of Parent Attorneys and Advocates.
