Goals: A Starting Point

Growth Goal

What would you like to see as your GT goal for this year in music?

1. I would like

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
Steps I’ll take to reach my goal:

What Do You See As Roadblocks

Possible roadblocks I’ll need to navigate:

- _______________________________________________________________________
- _______________________________________________________________________
- _______________________________________________________________________
- _______________________________________________________________________
- _______________________________________________________________________
Do I Need to Alter My Goals In Order To Be Successful?

- Are my goals realistic?
- Do I have access to resources, teachers, and mentors who are qualified to help me reach my goal?
- Do my goals line up with the Colorado State Music Standards?
- Has my teacher reviewed and approved my goals?

Am I willing to put in the time?
I’ll know I’ve reached my goal when I can…have completed…qualified for…

AP Music Theory

- AP Music Theory Course Overview

- The AP Music Theory course corresponds to two semesters of a typical introductory college music theory course that covers topics such as musicianship, theory, musical materials, and procedures. Musicianship skills including dictation and other listening skills, sight-singing, and keyboard harmony are considered an important part of the course. Through the course, students develop the ability to recognize, understand, and describe basic materials and processes of music that are heard or presented in a score. Development of aural skills is a primary objective. Performance is also part of the learning process. Students understand basic concepts and terminology by listening to and performing a wide variety of music. Notational skills, speed, and fluency with basic materials are emphasized.
The AP Music Theory course supports mastery of the rudiments and vocabulary of music, including hearing and notating:

- Pitches
- Intervals
- Scales and keys
- Chords
- Meter
- Rhythm
In addition, identify aural and visual procedures based in common-practice tonality:

- Functional triadic harmony in traditional four-voice texture (with vocabulary including nonharmonic tones, seventh chords, and secondary dominants)
- Cadences
- Melodic and harmonic compositional processes (e.g., sequence, motivic development)
- Standard rhythms and meters
- Phrase structure (e.g., contrasting period, phrase group)
- Small forms (e.g., rounded binary, simple ternary, theme and variation, strophic)
- Modulation to closely related keys
Find a school in the area that will offer AP testing in May.

LOOK EARLY!

There are deadlines you do not want to miss.
BE INCLUSIVE

- Talent pool students
- If the identification is borderline, find more criteria that will help qualify the student. Look for another pathway.
- Keep looking: what other state based or juried performance opportunities can be found?
- Build the portfolios! Help the students gain the knowledge and skills they lack.
- Be open to student input and ideas.
