Psychomotor Ability
Quick Check / Mark ALL That Apply

• is rhythmic
• is athletic
• likes to play physically
• is coordinated, balanced and confident in physical activities
• is inventive in constructing or modifying games
• is energetic
• is able to understand the intellectual aspects of psychomotor activities
• demonstrates endurance, stamina and persistence in physical activities
• demonstrates prowess in physical activities common amongst age peers
• is challenged by difficult athletic activities
• exhibits precision in movement
• enjoys participation in various athletic opportunities
• is well coordinated
• has manipulative skills
• has high energy level
• has an unusual quantity of input from environment through a heightened sense of awareness
• has an unusual discrepancy between physical and intellectual development
• has a high degree of energy