

BIO: Kristy Werther, LCSW has been the Brain Injury Consultant within Health and Wellness at CDE since 2011. Prior to joining CDE she was a medical social worker at The Johns Hopkins Hospital. In addition, she has prior work experience with consulting firms doing program evaluation, program management, and needs assessments within the fields of child welfare, school mental health and community health disparities. She has her Masters in Social Work with a concentration in Management Analysis and Community Organization from the University of Maryland.

COLORADO
Department of Education

Webinar: "Concussion Management: Best Practices"

Tuesday, May 26, 2015; 2 - 3pm MST

Kristy Werther, LCSW

AUDIENCE: Open to all school professionals.

DESCRIPTION: This webinar is intended to provide school professionals with an overview of best practices in concussion management and ideas for developing a concussion process/protocol.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Gain understanding of what is considered best practices in concussion management.
- Learn how best practices translates to the school setting.
- Learn ideas for getting started in your school or district.

REGISTER (by April 10th):

<https://healthyschoolscolorado.wufoo.com/forms/may-26-2015-concussion-webinar/>

* Certificates of participation (1 hour) will be e-mailed to those who attend the webinar in its entirety.

For more information contact:

Kristy Werther, Senior Brain Injury Consultant
303-866-2879; Werther_k@cde.state.co.us

Colorado Department of Education
Health and Wellness
1580 Logan St. – Suite 200, Denver, CO 80203