Promising Partnership Practices—2020 Publication

COLORADO
Department of Education

The State Advisory Council for Parent Involvement in Education (SACPIE), in collaboration with the Colorado Department of Education (CDE), is collecting promising partnership practices from schools, districts, early childhood programs, and institutes of higher education across the state to publish in the sixth annual Promising Partnership Practices—Colorado book. SACPIE and CDE invite schools, districts, early childhood centers, institutions of higher education, accountability committees, parent-teacher committees, or any other school- or district-based council to submit an application for consideration in the publication. The purpose of this book is for schools, districts, and other educational organizations in Colorado to share how they partner with families and the community for student success.

Instructions for Submissions:

- Write a one page, single-spaced narrative about the practice, following the template provided. Use size 12, Times New Roman font.
- Inform the school principal, district superintendent, or other organizational leader that you are submitting the application.
- Include pictures, if possible.
- Return the application to Darcy Hutchins at hutchins_d@cde.state.co.us.
- Due Date: June 15, 2020.

Special Considerations:

The selection committee will use the following criteria for acceptance of publication:

- National Standards for Family-School Partnerships.
- Dual Capacity Framework.
- Four Essential Elements
