

2013-2014 Student Interchange – End of Year Adjustments

Purpose:

If a school district has received notification that a student who was reported as a dropout, expulsion or GED Transfer during a previous reporting period is completing their education or has completed their education through another education agency, a cohort membership base adjustment can be made. Adjustments can only be made for students who were reported as dropouts, expulsions, or GED Transfers from a school administered by the reporting district. Zero-fill all adjustment fields that are not used. Adjustment codes should only be used with 9th-12th graders.

Dependencies:

Student has been assigned a SASID and updated in the RITS system.
 Student was marked as a dropout, expelled, or GED transfer in a prior year.

Record Expectation:

The LEA should submit 1 record per student per LEA for any student whose exit type from a prior year needs to be adjusted.
