Immigrant - USDE Definition under Section 3301(6) Title III

A child is an immigrant if he/she is age 3 through 21 and was not born in any state and has not been attending one or more schools in any one or more States for more than 3 full academic years. The term 'immigrant children' means individuals who:

- 1. Are ages 3 through 21; AND
- 2. Were not born in any State; AND
- 3. Have not been attending one or more schools in any one or more States for more than 3 full academic years.

Important items to note about immigrants:

- 1. "States" are defined in legislation as the 50 states, Washington D.C., and Puerto Rico.
- 2. Determining the legality of a student's immigration status is not a duty of the local school district. Undocumented children have the same right to attend public schools as do U.S. citizens and permanent residents. In fact, the student's parents and the district officials have an obligation to see that the students attend school as mandated by the Colorado School Attendance Law.
- 3. "Three full academic years" (number 3 above in the definition) is cumulative

Refugee- Any person who is outside any country of such person's nationality or, in the case of a person having no nationality, is outside any country in which such person last habitually resided, and who is unable or unwilling to return to, and is unable or unwilling to avail himself or herself of the protection of, that country because of persecution or a well-founded fear of persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion.

- 1. To be admitted to the United States, refugees must be determined by an officer of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) to meet the definition of refugee as defined in the Refugee Act of 1980.
- 2. Refugees are considered to be "Refugees" until they become US citizens.
- 3. Students who are not identified as refugee should have a value of "No" for the Refugee field.

Last updated: October 3, 2013

4. If the district is not able to verify a student's refugee status, then the student should have a value of "No" for the Refugee field.

0	No
1	Yes

Important items to note about refugees:

- 1. Refugee is a voluntary field.
- 2. Districts can identify a student's refugee status by:
 - a. A service provider or case worker will identify a student's refugee status enrolled in your district.
 - b. A Home Language Survey will trigger additional consultation as to a student's refugee status.
 - c. A School Counselor, Social Worker, Community Liaison, Parent Liaison can be utilized to identify the student's refugee status.
 - d. Family provides refugee status documentation.
- 3. Determining the legality of a student's refugee status is not a duty of the local school district. Refugee children have the same right to attend public schools as do U.S. citizens and permanent residents. In fact, the student's parents and the district officials have an obligation to see that the student attends school as mandated by Colorado School Attendance Law.

NOTE

English Language Learner – An English Language Learner is a student who:

- 1. Was not born in the United States or whose native language is a language other than English; or
- 2. Is a Native American or Alaskan Native or is a native resident of the outlying areas and comes from an environment where a language other than English has had a significant impact on such individual's level of English language proficiency; or
- 3. Is migratory and whose native language is other than English, and who comes from an environment where a language other than English is dominant; AND
- 4. Has sufficient difficulty speaking, reading, writing, or understanding the English language, and whose difficulties may deny such individual the opportunity to learn successfully in classrooms where the language of instruction is English or to participate fully in our society.

Students who have been tested for English language proficiency and are currently not proficient in English, either Non-English Proficient (NEP) or Limited-English Proficient (LEP), MUST be provided with some type of language services whether through a Bilingual or an English as a Second Language (ESL) program. (Note: Districts are not required to test PK students for English skills, however, if a test is given and a student is found to be NEP or LEP, services must be provided.)

For the Student End of Year (EOY) Collection:

Student End of Year for English Language Learners is a summation of the previous school year, not a reporting of the status of the student for the next year. If a student is reported as NEP or LEP in Student October and/or takes the WIDA/Access English language proficiency test, then that student should be reported as NEP or LEP receiving Bilingual/ESL program services or parental refusal of Bilingual/ESL services in the Student End of Year collection.

An English Language Learner, as defined for Student End of Year purposes, is a student who has a Language Background other than English (ENG) and at any point throughout the school year was served or monitored by either a Bilingual or an English as a Second Language (ESL) program. Students who were formerly served and monitored through the district's bilingual or ESL services must be marked as exited with a language proficiency of FEP and the appropriate language background and ELL program codes.

Language Background - Any student, who has a language proficiency code of Non English Proficient (NEP), Limited English Proficient (LEP), Fluent English Proficient (FEP), Primary or Home Language Other Than English (PHLOTE), or Former ELL (FELL), must have a language background other than English (ENG). An excel version of the language codes can be viewed at https://cdeapps.cde.state.co.us/2012-13ELPALanguageCodes.xls. Deactivated codes can be viewed at https://cdeapps.cde.state.co.us/2012-13ELPALanguageCodes.xls.

Coding ASL (American Sign Language)

While ASL is a recognized language, these fields are meant to describe languages of second language learners as they relate to ESL/Bilingual programming. If the student is in fact an ELL, the language background would not be ASL; it would be something other than "eng", such as Spanish. If it is determined there is a language influence other than English (ASL is considered English for ELL programming purposes), than the process of identification would begin and would follow the District policy – W-APT testing, build a body of evidence, and a language proficiency of NEP or LEP determined.

homeless individual is one who lacks a "fixed, regular, and adequate primary nighttime residence," including children and youth who are:

- 1. Sharing housing due to loss of housing or economic hardship (not due to cultural preference or a desire to save money)
- 2. Living in motels, hotels, trailer parks, or camping grounds due to lack of alternative adequate housing.

- 4. Abandoned in hospitals.

- 8. Migratory children who qualify as homeless because they are living in circumstances described above.

NOTE: Not all persons living in the situations described would be considered homeless. Two major factors to consider when making a determination are the adequacy and permanence of the housing. Information to assist with determining Homelessness by the definition can be accessed at http://www.cde.state.co.us/dropoutprevention/homeless data Select "Determining Homelessness by the Definition"

Language Proficiency -- A student's English language proficiency is described by his or her ability to speak, listen, read, and write in English. English Language Learners (ELL) must have an English Proficiency rating entered (1, 2, or 3) and non-ELL students must be coded as 0 or 4. Former English Language Learners are coded as 5.

Not Applicable NEP - Non English Proficient - A student who speaks a language other than English and does not comprehend, speak, read, or write English. PHLOTE, English Proficient- A student, new to district, who has a Primary or Home Language Other Than English (PHLOTE), has never been served in a language instruction education program (i.e: ELA, ESL, Bilingual), and after initial screening (currently CELAplace) and review of a body of evidence, is determined to be proficient in English. 1	Yes – Student is in an ESL Program
2	Redesignated ESL Program (Monitored Year 1)
3	Redesignated ESL Program (Monitored Year 2)

Which to use: Bilingual or ESL?

- It is up to the District to determine the program that best describes the student's English language development educational setting.
- For parent refusal of services: Again, it is up to the District to determine the program that best describes the program from which the parent/guardian has refused English Language Development services.

To determine "Redesignated" status:

Students in a language acquisition program may be ready to be redesignated into a two-year monitoring period (Monitored Year 1 and Monitored Year 2) as outlined by Office of Civil Rights criteria and Title III, Section 3121(a)4.

Definition of a "Redesignated status" student:

1. Has achieved a "Fluent" category on a reliable and valid language proficiency assessment

Last updated: October 3, 2013 Page 13 of 15

2. Has achieved age and grade level academic achievement standards and proficiencies commensurate to the achievement of mainstream students at a partially proficient level. After one year of monitoring, it is the district's decision as to whether to place the student back into a language acquisition program or to monitor for a second year.

To determine if a student is eligible for "Exited" status: After a two year monitoring period, district personnel must evaluate if a student is ready for formal exit from the bilingual or ESL program. It is the district's final decision as to whether or not the student is ready for exit based on the following criteria. Exited students are no longer monitored, but must be reported as exited (Bilingual or ESL status =4) for the remainder of their time in the district. Exited status:

- 1. Has achieved a "Fluent" category on a reliable and valid language proficiency assessment
- 2. Has achieved age and grade level academic achievement standards and proficiencies commensurate to the achievement of mainstream students at a partially proficient level.
